

Nortek Security & Control LLC Donates Access Control Systems to Casa de Amparo and Saved In America

San Diego-based organizations team up to prevent child abuse and neglect

Carlsbad, CA – December 3, 2017 – Nortek Security & Control LLC (NSC), a global leader in the security, smart home, access control and personal digital health markets, joined forces with Casa de Amparo and Saved In America in donating access control products and safety services for the Casa Kids Campus project. NSC is providing telephone entry systems, automated gate operators and electronic key fobs to ensure the continued safety and well-being of children housed at the Casa Kids Campus. Casa Kids Campus provides a safe environment for children and families traumatized by severe child abuse and neglect.

“At NSC our responsibility to the communities we live and work in is foundational to our corporate culture. We believe that giving back to the San Diego community is a privilege and feel honored to donate our goods and services to Casa de Amparo alongside Saved In America,” said Mike O’Neal, President of NSC. “It’s incredibly rewarding to know that NSC has a hand in keeping some of San Diego’s children safe.”

“With physical access control solutions from NSC, as well as boots-on-the-ground services from Saved in America donated, we have the invaluable peace of mind that our Casa Kids Campus is secure,” said Tamara Fleck-Myers, Executive Director of Casa de Amparo. “Knowing we have the best equipment and resources to keep us safe, we can continue to provide a truly nurturing environment to our kids that promotes healing, growth and healthy relationships.”

Saved in America, a non-profit committed to locating missing and runaway children, has donated their time and services to securely patrol the Casa Kids Campus to monitor for and address on premise safety risks, in addition to keeping an eye on the children housed at the campus.

“Casa de Amparo and their Casa Kids Campus are very near and dear to our organization’s heart and core mission,” said Joseph Travers, President of Saved In America. “We’re honored to offer our services and work alongside a great community partner like NSC to eliminate security risks and facilitate the amazing work that the folks at Casa de Amparo do.”
